

California Shines
The 2011 U.S. Capitol Christmas Tree
Tree Lighting Ceremony Entry Form

Must be postmarked by October 7th, 2011.

2011 Capitol Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony Entry Form

Young Californians, between the ages of 5 and 17 are eligible to enter a drawing to win an all-expense paid trip for him/herself and an accompanying parent or guardian to Washington, D.C. participating in the 2011 Capitol Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony in early December.

Together with Speaker of the House John Boehner, the selected California youth will culminate the ceremony by lighting the 2011 Capitol Christmas Tree. This 60 foot tree is California's gift to the nation from the Stanislaus National Forest. This holiday event will kick off the 2011 holiday season creating memories that will inspire and last a lifetime.

Only one entry per person.

Must be postmarked by October 7th, 2011.

I am a young Californian, age 5 through 17. I have permission from my parent/guardian to enter this drawing. Here's my contact information:

Name: _____ Age: _____
Address: _____ Telephone: () ____ - _____
City: _____ State: _____ Zip _____

If ornament was made as part of a school or organization project, complete the following:

School or Organization Name: _____
Art Teacher/Adult Coordinator: _____

REQUIRED

Parent/Guardian Printed Name: _____

Signature: _____

Address: _____ Telephone: () ____ - _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip _____

Email: _____

Mail Entry Forms by October 7th, 2011 to:
Stanislaus National Forest
Attn: 2011 Capitol Christmas Tree Lighter Drawing
19777 Greenley Road
Sonora, California 95370

In 4 sentences or less in the space below, tell us why you should be chosen to be the tree lighter for the 2011 Capitol Christmas Tree.
